

MY KILL JACK'S ON - Live!

This upcoming Thursday, June 5th, 2PLAYERMUSIC's own My Kill Jack's On (aka Chris Doria) will be providing the music for the graduating senior design/media arts student show at the Eda Broad Art Center at UCLA. He'll be playing around two hours worth of his original material. It is a free event but unfortunately parking isn't. You can always ride a bike, take a bus or teleport to the event. The opening starts around 5:30pm and MKJO will be hitting things off around 6pm. See you there!
